2011 MICHIGAN STATE SPRING FOOTBALL PREVIEW

March 29-April 30 (Green-White Spring Game at 1:30 p.m.)

FIRST-AND-10 -

• Michigan State, which won a school-record 11 games in 2010 and a share of its first Big Ten Championship since 1990, finished No. 14 in the final Associated Press and USA TODAY Polls. It marks the second time in the last three years that MSU has appeared in the final polls, as the Spartans (9-4) ranked No. 24 in both the AP and USA TODAY Polls at the conclusion of the 2008 season. It also marks the Spartans' highest finish in the national polls since 1999 (No. 7 in both polls with a 10-2 record).

• Michigan State, which earned a Top 25 national ranking for 13 consecutive weeks, went 5-0 in games decided by 10 points or less in 2010 and 6-1 (.857) in games played against bowl-bound teams.

• Mark Dantonio, who was selected Dave McClain (Big Ten) Coach of the Year as well as National Coach of the Year by CBSSports.com, Rivals.com and Scout.com, helped manage the third-biggest turnaround among NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams during the regular season, as the Spartans improved from 6-7 a year ago to 11-1 in 2010.

• Mark Dantonio became the first coach in Michigan State history to win at least nine games twice in his first four seasons. Dantonio has recorded 33 victories in his first four seasons at MSU – the most by any Spartan head coach in his first four years (Chester Brewer ranks second, with 30 wins from 1903-06).

• The 2010 senior class helped Michigan State to a combined record of 33-19 (.635), including four straight postseason bowl appearances (2007 Champs Sports Bowl, 2009 Capital One Bowl, 2010 Valero Alamo Bowl and 2011 Capital One Bowl). The 33 wins are the most ever recorded by a senior class in MSU's 114-year football history (previous record: 31 by Class of 1990).

• Michigan State must replace a pair of four-year starters at linebacker, in two-time All-American Greg Jones and Eric Gordon. Jones and Gordon started more games at linebacker (95 combined starts) than any other duo in Spartan history.

• Gone is four-year starter Aaron Bates, who led the Big Ten and ranked No. 13 in the NCAA FBS in punting with his 45.0-yard average in 2010. Bates, who became the first punter in the 114-year history of Spartan football to be named captain, also made clutch throws on fake field goals (vs. Notre Dame) and punts (vs. Northwestern) last season.

• Kirk Cousins heads into his third year as the starting quarterback. He has compiled a 16-9 record in 25 career starts. Cousins completed 67 percent of his passes for 2,825 yards, 20 touchdowns and 10 interceptions in 2010. He already ranks among MSU's career leaders in passing efficiency (first with 146.7 rating), completion percentage (first at .643), passing yards (fourth at 5,815), TD passes (sixth with 41), pass completions (sixth at 456) and pass attempts (eighth at 709). Andrew Maxwell, who saw action in five games in 2010, also enters his second year as the back-up quarterback.

• The top three tailbacks return, in Edwin Baker, Le'Veon Bell and Larry Caper, who combined to rush for 1,950 yards and 23 touchdowns in 2010. That trio combined to account for 99 percent of the team's rushing yards (1,950 of 1,978) and 92 percent of its rushing TDs (23 of 25) last season. Baker led the team in carries (207), rushing yards (1,201) and rushing TDs (13). He also finished fourth in the Big Ten and No. 30 in the NCAA FBS in rushing, averaging 92.4 yards per game. As a true freshman, Bell contributed 605 rushing yards and eight TDs.

FIRST-AND-10 (continued) –
• Despite the loss of Mark Dell (51 catches for 788 yards and six TDs), the Spartans remain well stocked at wide receiver. B.J. Cunningham led the team in TD receptions (9) in 2010 and ranked second in both receptions (50) and receiving yards (611). Keshawn Martin (32 catches for 394 yards and one TD) and Keith Nichol (22 for 262 yards and one TD) finished third and fifth, respectively, in receptions last season. In addition, Bennie Fowler (14 for 175 yards and one TD) saw significant action during the second half of the year.

UPON FURTHER REVIEW –
• Michigan State made its fourth-straight postseason bowl appearance for the first time since 1987-90 (lost to No. 15 Alabama, 49-7, in the 2011 Capital One Bowl), matching the longest bowl streak in school history. Mark Dantonio also became the first coach in MSU history to earn a postseason bowl bid in each of his first four seasons.
• Michigan State completed its first-ever 7-0 home season, including a 34-31 overtime win over Notre Dame and a 34-24 victory over Wisconsin in the Big Ten opener.
• Michigan State scored at least 30 points in a school-record nine games in 2010.
• The biggest challenge MSU faced heading into the 2010 season was identifying who would fill the shoes of placekicker Brett Swenson, the school's all-time scoring leader (377 career points, including 71 field goals). Dan Conroy proved up to the challenge, as he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media in his first year as the starter. Conroy led the team in scoring with 87 points, converting 14-of-15 field-goal attempts and 45-of-46 extra-point tries. He led the Big Ten and ranked fifth in the NCAA FBS in field-goal accuracy (.933).

SPARTAN COACHING STAFF

MARK DANTONIO
HEAD COACH
FIFTH SEASON

In just four seasons, Mark Dantonio has restored the pride and tradition of Spartan football.

A Zanesville, Ohio, native with Midwest ties, Dantonio has 28 years of collegiate coaching experience and coached in his 15th bowl game as the Spartans faced Alabama in the 2011 Capital One Bowl. It marked Dantonio's second New Year's Day game as a head coach, as he guided MSU to a 2009 appearance in the Capital One Bowl against Georgia.

Dantonio, who led Michigan State to a school-record 11 wins in 2010 and a share of its first Big Ten Championship since 1990, was named the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year, as selected by the conference's media panel. A finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant, Eddie Robinson and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year Awards, Dantonio helped manage the third-biggest turnaround among NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams during the regular season, as the Spartans improved from 6-7 in 2009 to 11-1 in 2010.

The 55-year-old Dantonio became the fifth coach in MSU history to earn Big Ten Coach of the Year honors, joining Denny Stolz (1974), Darryl Rogers (1978), George Perles (1987) and John L. Smith (2003). He was also named the AFCA (American Football Coaches Association) Region 3 Coach of the Year, and earned National Coach of the Year honors from CBSSports.com, Scout.com and Rivals.com.

Thanks to its 28-22 victory at Penn State in the regular-season finale, Michigan State recorded its first win in State College since 1965 - the year before Joe Paterno took over as Penn State's head coach - and finished in a three-way tie with Wisconsin and Ohio State for the 2010 Big Ten Championship. With successive wins over Minnesota, Purdue and Penn State to close out the regular season, the Spartans posted a perfect 3-0 record in November for the first time since 1999. MSU also dealt Wisconsin its only loss of the 2010 regular season, 34-24, in the Big Ten opener. The Spartans finished the season ranked No. 14 in both The Associated Press and USA TODAY/Coaches' Polls, giving MSU its highest finish in the final polls since 1999. It also marked MSU's second finish in the Top 25 in the past three years (No. 24 in 2008).

A total of 16 Spartans received All-Big Ten recognition on the first team, second team or honorable mention, including senior linebacker Greg Jones, senior punter Aaron Bates, sophomore running back Edwin Baker and sophomore placekicker Dan Conroy, who each earned All-Big Ten first-team honors from the media. One of the top linebackers in school history, Jones was named a first-team consensus All-American for the second straight season, becoming only the third Spartan to accomplish the feat. He also became just the seventh player in program history to receive first-team All-Big Ten honors three times.

Michigan State once again featured one of the most balanced offensive attacks in the Big Ten in 2010. MSU's offense ranked among the team single-season records for points (fourth with 383), passing yards (fifth with 3,073 yards) and total yards (seventh with 5,051 yards). The Spartans scored at least 30 points in nine games, including the first six in a row, both of which are school records.

The Spartans made significant strides defensively, fueling the team's remarkable turnaround. The biggest difference was takeaways - after forcing just 14 all of 2009, MSU totaled 24 in 2010. The Spartans recorded 17 interceptions, its highest total since 2004, which ranked second in the Big Ten and tied for 23rd in the nation. Michigan State's +0.4 turnover margin was tied for 31st in the FBS.

With appearances in the 2007 Champs Sports Bowl, the 2009 Capital One Bowl, the 2010 Alamo Bowl and the 2011 Capital One Bowl, Dantonio is the first coach in Michigan State history to earn a postseason bowl bid in each of his first four seasons. He has 33 victories in his first four seasons at MSU, which are the most by any Spartan head coach in his first four years (Chester Brewer ranks second, with 30 wins from 1903-06). Overall, Dantonio's Spartan coaching record is 33-19, good for a winning percentage of 64 percent.

From his first day on the job, Dantonio has pledged to support student-athletes as they pursue excellence, both in the classroom and on the playing field. In his first four seasons, 43 Spartans have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, including 2009 Academic All-American Blair White. In addition, 54 Michigan State football student-athletes have earned their undergraduate degrees, including 75 percent of his players who have completed their eligibility.

Dantonio, who served as head coach at Cincinnati for three seasons prior to his return to East Lansing, became Michigan State University's 24th head football coach on Nov. 27, 2006. He previously spent six years as an assistant coach at Michigan State from 1995-2000. In his seven seasons as a head coach, Dantonio has collected a 51-36 record (.586), including six bowl invitations.

In 2009, led by All-America linebacker Greg Jones and one of the most explosive offenses in the Big Ten, the Spartans earned their third consecutive bowl bid with a trip to the 2010 Alamo Bowl in San Antonio.

A consensus first-team All-American, Jones became the first Spartan to win Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year accolades after recording 154 tackles, finishing first in the conference and third nationally. He also led the team and ranked among the national leaders in tackles for loss (14 for 69 yards) and sacks (9 for 53 yards). Jones was rated the No. 1 linebacker in the nation by CollegeFootballNews.com and earned the Linebacker Trophy (Linebacker of the Year) by the College Football Performance Awards.

Cornerback Jeremy Ware continued the trend of draft picks under Dantonio, as he was chosen by the Oakland Raiders in the seventh round of the 2010 NFL Draft. Overall, five Spartans have been drafted in the Dantonio era, including Devin Thomas (2007 second round to Washington), Kellen Davis (2007 fifth round to Chicago), Ervin Baldwin (2007 seventh round to Chicago) and Javon Ringer (2008 fifth round to Tennessee).

Offensively, Michigan State featured the No. 2 passing attack in the Big Ten, averaging nearly 270 yards per game. The Spartans also finished second in the league in scoring (29.7 points per game) and third in total offense (406.2 ypg.). MSU established a school record with 28 touchdown passes in 2009, and the 3,502 passing yards ranked second in the school record book.

The Spartan passing game was built around wide receiver Blair White, who was a first-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches while recording career highs in receptions (70), TD catches (9) and receiving yards (990), all of which rank among MSU's Top 10 single-season leaders.

MSU's special teams featured the school's all-time leading kicker in Brett Swenson, who scored 377 career points. A first-team All-Big Ten selection and Lou Groza Award semifinalist, Swenson also became MSU's career leader in field goals (71 made) and extra points (164 made) during the 2009 season.

One of 15 semifinalists for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award, Dantonio had a breakthrough season in 2008. Under his leadership, the Spartans went 9-3 in the regular season and compiled a 6-2 record in the Big Ten, the best league mark for the program since 1999. It also marked just the third time since 1966 and 10th overall that Michigan State had won at least nine games in a season. The Spartans were rewarded with a berth in the 2009 Capital One Bowl against Georgia on New Year's Day.

Michigan State defeated five bowl-bound teams, with victories over Florida Atlantic, Notre Dame, Iowa, Northwestern and Wisconsin. The Spartans, who made their eighth New Year's Day Bowl appearance and their first in nine seasons, finished the season ranked No. 24 in both the Associated Press and USA Today Polls.

In 2008, three Michigan State players were named first-team All-Big Ten by the league's head coaches: senior running back Javon Ringer, senior safety Otis Wiley and sophomore linebacker Greg Jones. The three first-team all-conference selections were the most for the Spartans since five players received first-team honors in 1999. A total of 15 Spartans received All-Big Ten recognition on the first team, second team or honorable mention.

Ringer became MSU's first consensus All-American since 2004, earning first-team accolades from Walter Camp and the Associated Press. The Doak Walker Award finalist had one of the finest seasons in Spartan history, scoring a school-record 22 touchdowns and rushing for 1,637 yards, which ranked second in the school record books. Ringer was selected by the Tennessee Titans in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft.

In his first season as head coach at Michigan State, Dantonio sparked a three-game turnaround as the Spartans finished the 2007 regular season with a 7-5 record, securing the program's first bowl bid in four years with a berth against Boston College in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, Fla. Dantonio became just the third first-year coach in Michigan State history to earn a postseason bowl bid, joining Nick Saban (1995 Independence Bowl vs. LSU) and John L. Smith (2003 Alamo Bowl vs. Nebraska).

Michigan State (7-6 overall) produced seven victories despite playing one of the nation's most demanding schedules, as the Spartans' 2007 opponents had a combined record of 75-57 (.568) during the regular season. The Spartans went 4-3 in games played against bowl-bound teams in 2007. Michigan State lost six games by a combined total of 31 points, including two in overtime (Northwestern and Iowa). All six games were decided by seven points or less.

Michigan State finished the year strong, winning its final two games of the regular season for the first time since 1999 with victories at Purdue and over Penn State, both bowl-bound teams. Dantonio became the first coach in Spartan history to begin his initial season 4-0, as Michigan State opened the 2007 campaign with wins over UAB, Bowling Green, Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. With the 31-14 victory over the Irish, the Spartans became the first opponent to win six-straight games in the 77-year history of Notre Dame Stadium.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MARK DANTONIO...

"The point of the National Coach of the Year honor...is not so much that the Spartans won a share of the Big Ten title and were within hundredths of a point of a Rose Bowl berth. The lesson was that Coach D came out of the (heart) episode a better man. He taught us all something about dignity and perseverance – and fun."

- Dennis Dodd, CBSSports.com, National Coach of the Year

"Dantonio needed only four years to turn a chronic underachiever into a Big Ten champion. He fostered a new sense of mental toughness in his players after a rough season both on and off the field in 2009. Dantonio made two of the gutsiest calls of the college football season, "Little Giants" against Notre Dame and "Mousetrap" against Northwestern, and worked his way back to the sideline barely a month after suffering a heart attack Sept. 19."

- Adam Rittenberg, ESPN.com, Big Ten Coach of the Year

"'Little Giants' – Play of the Year."

- Sporting News

"Four years ago, Dantonio headed to East Lansing to take over a program that had sustained three consecutive losing seasons and hadn't won a Big Ten championship since 1990. This season, with some creativity (a fake field goal in overtime against Notre Dame, a fake punt against Northwestern), some big wins and some luck (he overcame a late-September heart attack), he led the Spartans to the most wins in school history."

- Rivals.com, National Coach of the Year

"More and more, the team reflects the coach. Tough and unyielding, resilient and resourceful. Michigan State is churning toward a Big Ten title, stomping past obstacles few could have imagined. Mark Dantonio is still pushing, and in the reflection of an improbable season, you see what he saw when he arrived four years ago."

-Bob Wojnowksi, The Detroit News, 11/16/10

In 2007, Michigan State featured one of the Big Ten's most prolific offensive attacks. The Spartans ranked second in the conference in scoring offense (33.1 points per game), third in rushing offense (198.2 yards per game) and fourth in total offense (416.8 ypg.). Michigan State also was listed among the NCAA's top 30 in rushing offense (No. 25) and scoring offense (No. 29). The Spartans scored a school single-season record 430 points and produced Top 10 single-season totals in six other offensive categories, including total yards (No. 3: 5,418), first downs (No. 4: 266), passing yards (No. 6: 2,842), total yards per game (No. 6: 416.8) and scoring average (No. 6: 33.1 ppg.).

Michigan State also displayed dramatic improvement on the defensive side of the football in 2007. The Spartans ranked fourth in the Big Ten and No. 30 nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 125.9 ypg. After finishing eighth in the Big Ten and No. 88 nationally in total defense in 2006, the Spartans improved to fourth in the league and No. 32 in the NCAA, allowing 345.5 ypg.

Dantonio established himself as one of the nation's up-and-coming coaches during his three-year tenure at Cincinnati, where he compiled an 18-17 overall record and led the program in its transition to the BIG EAST Conference.

In 2006, Dantonio led the Bearcats to a 7-5 overall record and a 4-3 BIG EAST mark, making Cincinnati bowl eligible for the second time in three years. Dantonio accomplished the feat against the second-toughest schedule in the country, as UC's opponents compiled a 69-42 record.

Dantonio became only the second head coach in Cincinnati history (along with Sid Gillman) to take the Bearcats to a bowl game in his first season in 2004. UC topped Marshall, 32-14, in the Fort Worth Bowl to cap a 7-5 season.

Prior to his appointment at Cincinnati, Dantonio served as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State for three seasons, where his defensive unit helped the Buckeyes to a combined record of 32-6, including the 2002 National Championship.

Dantonio is quite familiar with East Lansing, as he spent six years (1995-2000) as Michigan State's secondary coach, including five seasons under Saban and one under Bobby Williams. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2000. During his six-year record as an assistant, the Spartans compiled a 39-30-1 record.

Dantonio came to Michigan State following four seasons under Glen Mason at Kansas (1991-94) where he coached the defensive secondary. He previously spent five years at Youngstown State under Jim Tressel, helping the Penguins to three trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs.

His collegiate coaching credits also includes stops at Akron (defensive secondary, 1985), Ohio State (graduate assistant, 1983-84), Butler (Kan.) Junior College (defensive coordinator, 1982), Purdue (graduate assistant, 1981) and Ohio University (graduate assistant, 1980).

Dantonio earned three letters as a defensive back for Coach Jim Carlen at South Carolina (1976-78). He earned a bachelor's degree in education from South Carolina in 1979. Dantonio later earned a master's degree in education from Ohio U. in 1980.
